

This product has the following features:

Adjustable height manually

Connectivity to advanced pullers

Reduced number of tires from 6 of 8

Equipped with anti-reversal system

Reduced height of the tank, resulting in greater stability in roads compared with two-axle tankers

Lighter than old models

The possibility of raising an axle in the out of service mode for reducing depreciation on tires

Designable for LPG and other pressure productions

Click here for more information